Cleveland, Ohio – September 30, 2010 – Hinkley Lighting has partnered with ELLE DECOR, one of the design world's most prestigious publications, as a Lighting Sponsor of their first-ever showhouse, which opens November 4 in San Francisco.

A stunningly renovated 4,500 square foot home in the historic St. Francis neighborhood of San Francisco, the home is being designed by eleven of the Bay Area's most sought after interior designers to create a destination for celebrating sensational design inspiration and chic, smart decorating ideas.

"We are thrilled to be collaborating with ELLE DECOR and the renowned designers associated with this project," said Rick Wiedemer, President of Hinkley Lighting. "Our lighting has always been a blend of the very best in design and function, and the perfect match for a project of this caliber."

Hinkley Lighting will be seen in the media room, on the exterior of the home and throughout its grounds, as well as in the greenhouse located on the property. The residence will be featured in the February/March 2011 issue of the magazine.
